

Country	Capacity Building / Education	Financing	National Policies and Structures	Regional Policies and Structures	Resource Management	Sustainable Agriculture	Others
Cambodia			Government should ensure the sustainable environment Speed up land ownership/titling registration by the government	Policies to support women in Mekong delta in access food security, proper health care, capacity building in response to global climate change impacts		Promote organic farming system Ensure marketing for local products
China			Implementation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights with a budget in each country, with transparency				We should all try to be responsible global citizens
India			Convergence of efforts on the issue of climate change
Indonesia			Follow/implement Philippines/Manila call for action (consultative meeting) Want carefully government policy on protection of forests (carbon trade) for indigenous access to forest			Agriculture paradigm changing Protecting farmers/peasants products	Free prior informed consent

Country	Capacity Building / Education	Financing	National Policies and Structures	Regional Policies and Structures	Resource Management	Sustainable Agriculture	Others
Kenya			Increase resources to gender/women ministries to take lead in the G8CC agenda
Lao PDR							No sincerity on the part of the government of gender equality
Lesotho	Empower women through capacity building Educate women on forest protection					Promote sustainable agricultural practices
Mexico			Legislar en politicas ambient tales.		Reforest the woods, plant more trees Reforestar los bosques		Cultura de la prevencion
Nigeria	Educate the rural women about climate change		Agriculture as a priority				Bore-holes to the people (?) Nigeria has gas, give it to the people for their cooking

Country	Capacity Building / Education	Financing	National Policies and Structures	Regional Policies and Structures	Resource Management	Sustainable Agriculture	Others
Pakistan			Sustainable policies at all levels			Stop usage of pesticides
Papua New Guinea							Food prices are affecting women in my country. How could this congress address or support women on this issue? We are relocating already due to rising sea level. How would we access financial assistance
Philippines	Training requirement of grassroots implementors as mandatory qualification prior to installation in office Enlighten the media owners, empower the media practitioners to promote women, food security,	Northern countries support Oxfam's recommendation re budget allocation for CCA and CCM Evaluation and approval of CDM should be simplified to be able women to access these funds Monitoring of CC fund to improve	Government should make gender-responsive DRR plans now Amendments of Biofuel Act Mandatory % share in malls/supermarkets to sell locally produced agri-products to encourage backyard production		More support for water impounding and watershed protection Promote ecological waste management (no landfills, dumps or incinerators) to protect food and water form toxic contamination Mapping of vulnerabilities in	For government and international agencies to promote and fund org agri part seeding banking and herb/vegetable gardens/farms Increase public investments in food productivity programs / inputs / technical development	Dissemination of the DENR's GEO-PHYSICAL HAZARD map Hazard mapping in all regions/provinces Government to invest in DRR Require gender component in project implementation

Country	Capacity Building / Education	Financing	National Policies and Structures	Regional Policies and Structures	Resource Management	Sustainable Agriculture	Others
	climate adaptation and DRR Empower the education officials to integrate in the curriculum the understanding on gender, food security and climate change Start interactive discussions on human rights vis-à-vis gender and environment from elementary level based on gender-responsive educational system	food security and access of women Set aside adaptation fund	Budget increase for agri-food security from government Integrate CC and food security in the comprehensive development and land use planning of LGUs Urge government to bring down science and technology to the grassroots Reverse the decentralization of agricultural development programs Review mining policy vis-à-vis climate change issues Urge government to bring down sustainable agriculture system to practicing farmers		watershed areas	For Philippine rice farming, women play an important role in seeds saving. Hybrids and GMOs are threat to seeds security. They disempower women. Research on more tolerant crop species For island nations – let us promote ecosystem habitat rehabilitation Promote integrated pest management in the country Ban pesticides, chemical fertilizers and GMOs Propagation of drought-resistant crops	Let us not wait for government to help/do something for us. Let us start doing/acting Do women have a voice? One voice? This can make a difference Political will to implement laws and programs for ecology

Country	Capacity Building / Education	Financing	National Policies and Structures	Regional Policies and Structures	Resource Management	Sustainable Agriculture	Others
			Government provision of subsidized organic seeds and fertilizers and credit for organic farming to rural communities especially rural women Institutionalize disaster risk management office in every local unit of the government and appropriating funds Creation of DM/DRR council per community (i.e., barangay level)
Timor Leste			National DRM policies need to be reinforced	Must recognize regional policies on CC , DRR, Food Security and Gender. Thus need continued support
General / No Country Mentioned	Community-based education on climate change, gender and food	How rich nations can share to poor nations their resources –	Encourage local governments to set-up gender-sensitive ecological resource	We also need to consider rising food prices for urban populations	Mainstream organic, ecological agriculture and use of renewable		Go back to basics What we've heard is a call for a

Country	Capacity Building / Education	Financing	National Policies and Structures	Regional Policies and Structures	Resource Management	Sustainable Agriculture	Others
	security Public awareness creation at all levels on DRR/CC Advocacy on adaptation Tailor DRR and CCA measures to meet and build capacities of local communities The issues of food security of women and climate change relates strongly to orientation and training --- need to bring on board the education sector Awareness for life and skillhood Conduct more studies/researches on food security and women (sex disaggregation of data to be	Finance mechanisms	centers Refocusing legislative agenda addressing climate change and food security Policing human settlements and/or subdivision developers (local/national) Child protection policies and how they link to / incorporate climate change and food security Eliminate discrimination in property law / land law Align policies on land use with human rights instruments Passage of the national land use act DRR/CC should be	in Asia and the Pacific – where people are not food producers. What can people do – particularly the poor – who cannot afford food?	energies (solar, wind)		strong multi-sectoral effort to address issues of women and food security in climate change Provide venue for women to raise grievances on impact of CC to their livelihood Analyze the consequences for the producers of biofuel when incorporating it in EU/national strategy for climate change mitigation

Country	Capacity Building / Education	Financing	National Policies and Structures	Regional Policies and Structures	Resource Management	Sustainable Agriculture	Others
	included)		a priority of governments Legislation of control of invasive species Intensify the roles of local government units in implementing environmental laws Gender analysis of existing laws / policies on food security Strong legislations need to be supported b solid data and statistics which inform the policy development process – reflects a good “bottom up approach” Institutionalization of policies and structures Food pricing policies in the cities

Country	Capacity Building / Education	Financing	National Policies and Structures	Regional Policies and Structures	Resource Management	Sustainable Agriculture	Others
			--- what will be done to protect the urban poor from rising food prices?				